

Important Information

Effective April 1, 2016

Indianhead Credit Union will no longer send NSF Notices or Automatic Transfer Notices by mail. You may view these notices through online banking. To do this:

- Log in to your account
- Select User Profile
- Select Manage E-mails
- Place a check in the Notices box

Once signed up, you will receive an email whenever there is a notice to view:

- Select Services
- Select View Statements
- Under Document Type, select the type of notice to be viewed

When using the mobile app, make sure Notices are turned on under Account Emails. If you don't have online access, these transactions may also be reviewed/verified through the telephone banking system also known as Hal.
